Privacy Notice

Why we collect your personal information

As a registered training organisation (RTO), we collect your personal information so we can process and manage your enrolment in a vocational education and training (VET) course with us.

How we use your personal information

We use your personal information to enable us to deliver VET courses to you, and otherwise, as needed, to comply with our obligations as an RTO.

How we disclose your personal information

We are required by law (under the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (Cth) (NVETR Act)) to disclose the personal information we collect about you to the National VET Data Collection kept by the National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd (NCVER). The NCVER is responsible for collecting, managing, analysing and communicating research and statistics about the Australian VET sector.

We are also authorised by law (under the NVETR Act) to disclose your personal information to the relevant state or territory training authority.

How the NCVER and other bodies handle your personal information

The NCVER will collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the law, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and the NVETR Act. Your personal information may be used and disclosed by NCVER for purposes that include populating authenticated VET transcripts; administration of VET; facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage; and understanding the VET market.

The NCVER is authorised to disclose information to the Australian Government Department of Education, Skills and Employment (DESE), Commonwealth authorities, State and Territory authorities (other than registered training organisations) that deal with matters relating to VET and VET regulators for the purposes of those bodies, including to enable:

- administration of VET, including program administration, regulation, monitoring and evaluation
- facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage
- understanding how the VET market operates, for policy, workforce planning and consumer information.

The NCVER may also disclose personal information to persons engaged by NCVER to conduct research on NCVER's behalf.

The NCVER does not intend to disclose your personal information to any overseas recipients.

For more information about how the NCVER will handle your personal information please refer to the NCVER's Privacy Policy at www.ncver.edu.au/privacy.

If you would like to seek access to or correct your information, in the first instance, please contact LMI College.

DESE is authorised by law, including the Privacy Act and the NVETR Act, to collect, use and disclose your personal information to fulfil specified functions and activities. For more information about how the DESE will handle your personal information, please refer to the DESE VET Privacy Notice at <https://www.dese.gov.au/national-vet-data/vet-privacy-notice>.

Surveys

You may receive a student survey which may be run by a government department or an NCVER employee, agent, third-party contractor or another authorised agency. Please note you may opt out of the survey at the time of being contacted.

Contact information

At any time, you may contact LMI College to:

- request access to your personal information
- correct your personal information
- make a complaint about how your personal information has been handled
- ask a question about this Privacy Notice

The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) may conduct a survey with you on our performance as a training provider. You will have the option to opt out at that time.

Certificates and Statement of Attainments

A qualification certificate or statement of attainment, with an attached statement of results will be issued on completion of the qualification/course within thirty (30) days via email.

Expected commitment by student

It is understood the student will be responsible for their own learning and will have access to broking software and other insurance tools required to complete assessments.

Students may be required to access other sources of information available on the internet in order to complete their assessments.

Students will be required to submit assessment tasks within a specified timeframe noted on the eLearning dashboard or as otherwise advised in writing. Extensions of time may be granted if requested by the student/supervisor to LMI College prior to the submission date unless exceptional circumstances apply. Students will only be granted two (2) extensions of time for extenuating circumstances per course, at the absolute discretion of LMI College. A request must be made in writing by the student to LMI College at least two (2) clear business days prior to the due date of assessment. In the event of a student failing to submit assessments within the time frame allowed, LMI College may provide an opportunity to extend the due date at its full discretion. If the student does not complete the assessment by the extended due date, LMI College may terminate the enrolment and any re-enrolment will incur an administration fee of $350.

Three (3) attempts at an assessment are included in the enrolment and assessment fees.

It is the student's responsibility to contact LMI College if they are having any difficulties or require feedback. LMI College will offer support when requested.

When a student is undertaking a course sponsored and paid for by their employer, the learning program is conducted co-jointly with the employer. The student understands the employer will be kept apprised of the student's progress if required.

Fees and Charges

Payment is made via bank transfer by the due date as shown on the LMI College invoice noting the reference number as shown on the LMI College invoice.

In the event a student completes a qualification or short course prior to the scheduled billing period, the remaining balance will be invoiced before credentials are issued.

Self-funding learners will be invoiced per learning module.

Client/students with overdue fees may have their course cancelled and the matter placed in the hands of a debt collection agency.

If a client/student requests additional on-site training and/or consulting, this will be at the discretion of LMI College and will incur an additional hourly rate fee.

Changes, Cancellations and Refunds

If a client or student cancels an enrolment within fourteen (14) days of enrolment, the client/student is entitled to a refund of the initial enrolment fee – less $350 administration charge. No refund is available once the learning module has been accessed.

If a student wishes to change enrolment to another course, any available refund is transferable to the new course. An additional administration fee of $350 may be incurred.

No refund is available for completed modules.

Change of Employment

Where students change employment, they are required to contact LMI College and complete a Transition Enrolment Form.

In the event the previous employer paid for the course, the student can choose to either;

- a) Obtain written authorisation from their previous employer to continue the course; OR
- b) Pay the monies direct to LMI for the full course fees; which we can then onforward to the ex-employer

In the case of any change, cancellation or request for refund, the client/student should contact LMI College to discuss further. A letter will be sent to the client/student confirming the agreed arrangements.

Declaration by person responsible for payment

A tax invoice will be forwarded to you on receipt of the enrolment form. Upon receipt of payment, an eLearning login will be sent to the student.

I have read and understood the schedule of fees provided and agree to the terms and conditions of payment as outlined in the schedule of fees; and agree to the Fees and Charges terms above.
